Open Mic Night at The Fred

If your dream is to perform in front of a live audience, or if your garage band is convinced they're ready to go on the road- The Fred has an opportunity for you! Open Mic Night at the Frederick Brown Jr. Amphitheater in Peachtree City is scheduled for Saturday, May 9. "We are looking for bands, vocalists, even comedians" says Nancy Price, Manager of The Fred. "This is basically a showcase of talent and all of the participants will get the chance to perform in front of a live audience that night with professional sound and lighting."

Open Mic will take place Saturday, May 9 beginning at 7 pm. Spectators attending the event will be charged a $5.00 fee if purchased in advance and $10.00 at the door to see an evening of diverse and great entertainment. There are a limited number of slots available so applicants are encouraged to register early. The participants will be rated that evening by a panel of judges and the winner will have the opportunity to open for one of the events scheduled this summer at The Fred.

Applications are currently available for Open Mic Night and may be picked up at The Fred Box Office or the Recreation Administration Building. Applications are also available online at www.amphitheater.org There is an application fee of $20 for groups of 2 or more and $10 for solo artists. The deadline for the Open Mic competition is April 20.
